Description

Decorative plate made of black basalt, hand-carved and polished by G. Gozzani, an Italian artisan active in the 1970s and 1980s. A one-of-a-kind piece made of basalt: a dense volcanic stone with a naturally lustrous surface after polishing. An inscription is engraved on the back: "G. Gozzani - For Recchi - 1987," indicating a personal commission or a commemorative gift. The reverse side shows the circular marks typical of diamond-grinding. The polished upper surface is adorned with a motif carved in relief, reminiscent of a stylized leaf. There are some slight surface scratches and small round spots that are more opaque than the rest of the surface.
