Description

Lapel clip in 750 white gold with diamonds from the 1930s-1940s. The triangular white gold setting, featuring geometric honeycomb patterns that taper downward, is set with diamonds. The upper part is domed and features a clasp consisting of three diamond-set tabs. A double pin on the clasp allows the piece to be attached to clothing. Eagle-head hallmark. Total weight: 13g. Approximately 3 carats of diamonds. Date: 1930s-1940s. France. Note: A very elegant piece, as it is timeless on the lapel of a jacket or with a little black dress. P.S.: Brooches are making a comeback. Carefully packaged, shipped with declared value and insurance.
