Description

A representative example of the Abadeh carpet family, dating from the 1900s-1930s and in magnificent condition. This beautiful carpet features a design known as Zil-I-Sultan. The design features bouquets of flowers in vases arranged in a row, one after the other. Abadeh rugs always use plant-based dyes, and the complexity of the pattern varies depending on the workshop. Abadeh rugs are knotted in the city of the same name; they are very durable and recommended for high-traffic areas. Our rug, with its intricate design, has retained all the freshness and beauty of its wool. The colors are vivid and fresh, set against a delicate, intricate design that stands out against an ivory background. Reds, blues, black, moss green, and chestnut on ivory adorn this piece. This type of rug exudes perfect harmony; the wool used is soft, silky, and lustrous. This piece has always been wonderfully well-maintained, which has allowed the pile to remain in impeccable condition; furthermore, these are tightly knotted rugs. The Afsharis create a carpet style--the Afshar carpet--that resembles the Abadeh style but has a more tribal appearance and is made of coarser, thicker wool. The design makes perfect use of the contrast between its colors against the ivory field. Abadeh is a city in the province of Fars in Iran. It is located at an altitude of 2,004 meters on a fertile plain along the road between Isfahan and Shiraz, 225 km from the former and 275 km from the latter. This city, located 638 km south of Tehran, is known worldwide for its high-quality rugs. Dimensions: Width: 162 cm (63") x Length: 220 cm (86") This rug has been professionally cleaned using eco-friendly methods. FREE SHIPPING TO FRANCE, just like with all our rugs, big or small!
