Description

Vase made of crystal and gilded bronze with putto decoration - Napoleon III period. A very elegant display vase from the Napoleon III period, combining a beautiful body of crystal or clear glass with a rich gilded bronze mount. The vase features a design of plant garlands and finely crafted foliage. The lower section is adorned with a remarkable openwork mount featuring a latticework design and floral motifs. A winged putto in gilded bronze, sculpted in the round, is depicted embracing the vase. The composition rests on an elegant, richly ornamented pedestal, topped by a molded square base. The piece is characteristic of French decorative art from the Second Empire, in the Napoleon III style, blending Louis XV inspiration with abundant ornamentation. Beautiful quality of
