Description

A charming sculptural group in cold-painted terracotta depicting a pair of "Majo" and "Maja" figures--iconic characters of Andalusian folk tradition (Spain). The sculpture is distinguished by the exceptional richness and vivacity of its modeling: the young man wears a traditional Andalusian outfit embellished with gold and blue relief patterns and a richly detailed red cape draped over his shoulders, while the young woman is portrayed in a light, draped gown, holding the quintessential fan. The piece--characterized by its hollow interior
