19th-century Brown Leather Library Armchair

2 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Leather

Width : 85

Height : 116

Depth : 75

Description

High-Quality, Untouched Brown Leather Victorian Wing ArmchairThis high-quality, late 19th-century brown leather button-back wing armchair is an excellent example of the George III style. Of substantial proportions, it features a well-shaped frame with a deep, buttoned, tall, contoured back and arms, all retaining the original brown leather upholstery. The armchair offers a host of refined details, including elegant, scroll-shaped arms, a sprung seat with a loose, contoured cushion, and closely set brass studs. It stands on cabriole legs ending in classic pad feet, enhancing its timeless and distinguished appearance. The leather displays a beautiful, untouched color and rich patina developed over many years, contributing both to its character and its comfort.The seat height is 46 cm. Overall, this

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques

18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art

Tel : 00 44 7595603348

Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square

Petworth GU28 0AH

armchair is in good, original condition. It combines exceptional comfort with a strong decorative presence, and its superb brown hue and patina reflect the quality and care it has received over time.