

Two Chandeliers With Globes Made Of Granulated Resin -- Scandinavia, 1960s-1970s

750 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Acrylic

Description

Two chandeliers made of teak-veneered wood, featuring four and five synthetic resin globes with a grainy surface, respectively, that cast a soft, even light. The combination of warm wood veneer and frosted-textured lampshades is characteristic of Scandinavian design from the 1960s-1970s. It creates a striking decorative effect, especially when the lamps are lit. Scandinavia, 1960s-1970s. Diameter: 60 cm -- Height: 80 cm. Sold separately or as a set.
