

Sigillata Pottery. Gallo-roman Period

Description

These 13 fragments, representative of 1st-century Gallo-Roman sigillata pottery, feature a wide variety of decorative motifs: deer, lions, animal friezes, and plant motifs. This small, refined collection can be displayed in a showcase. We found a fragment of Roman blue glass among them. The fragments range in size from 3 x 3.5 cm to 9.5 x 7 cm.
