Description

Set of 6 vintage chairs - 1950s/1960s design A beautiful set of six vintage dining chairs, typical of 1950s-1960s design. They feature a particularly elegant silhouette with slightly curved and flared backs, upholstered seats, and tapered wooden legs set at a slight angle--characteristic of furniture from this period. The seats and backs are upholstered in their original gray-green fabric with an abstract graphic pattern, composed of light-colored lines and free-form motifs. Contrasting piping highlights the contours. A decorative set with a distinct Mid-Century charm, ideal around a vintage table or in a contemporary interior. Condition: good overall condition considering its age. The upholstery shows signs of use, minor wear, and occasional imperfections, particularly on certain edges of the backrests, as
