Description

Louis XV-style sideboard in carved wood with a deliberately aged patina (omb) - 20th century
Elegant low Louis XV-style sideboard, crafted from wood, featuring a curved, ornate front and two rounded sides. The front opens with three doors: a wide central door and two arched side doors that follow the curved shape of the piece. They are adorned with molded panels and feature metal keyholes. Beautiful carved decoration featuring shells, foliage, and floral motifs, particularly on the side panels and the scalloped lower rail. The piece rests on four curved legs topped with scrollwork. The interior offers ample storage space with shelves and a central drawer. The sideboard features a deliberately distressed dark patina, revealing the warmer hue of the wood in places and giving it plenty of
