

East Africa : "little Masai Shield"

280 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

EastAfrica : "Small Maasai Shield," painted buffalo hide on a wooden frame and handle, 55 x 42 cm. Circa 1930-50. The hide is slightly stretched. Thanks to the invaluable book on shields from the Barbier-Mueller Collection, I was able to trace the origin of this charming shield. While I'm not much of a fan of weapons, I do enjoy the shields I buy regularly; their incredible variety makes them a superb theme for collecting and magnificent decorative objects... See also our other African shields: large Maasai, Mongo, Batammaliba, Ethiopian, Somali Gaschan, etc. Feel free to ask us for photos or additional information by email or phone. More photos and many other items are available at our store in Pau and on our Proantic website.
