Description

Oil painting depicting the port of Danzig (Gdansk), signed in the lower left corner by the French painter Claude René-Martin (1885-1965) and identified as "Danzig". A beautifully executed Post-Impressionist work, characterized by a lively brushstroke, textural quality, and a harmonious palette of ochre, brown, and blue tones. The scene captures the atmosphere of the harbor with its Hanseatic-style gabled facades, sailors on the wooden pier, a red-hulled boat adding a lovely splash of color in the center, and a two-masted sailboat moored on the right. A few missing pieces; see photos.
