Description

Here is an object full of poetry, and yet so simple. It is a pencil holder consisting of a long, slender mirror set in a small mahogany base--designed to evoke water and hold a pen holder-- with a small Viennese bronze figurine at each end: a duckling on one side and a little frog on the other. The patinas on the bronze figures are in very good condition--green for the frog, gold for the duck. The mirror is slightly oxidized, a sign of its age, but the piece as a whole is in very good condition. Nothing but charm.
