Description

Art Deco lamp in patinated metal, signed Jacques Limousin - circa 1920-1930 Superb Art Deco period table lamp, made of metal with a brown patina, depicting an elegant kneeling female figure, holding with both hands a bowl generously filled with fruit. The sculpture rests on a quadrangular base, richly adorned with floral and geometric motifs typical of the Art Deco period. The four sides are adorned with pearlescent plaques, enhanced by a design of flowers, foliage, and stylized motifs. The piece as a whole displays exceptional decorative quality, featuring a nuanced antique patina and numerous finely crafted details. The light, diffused through the openwork and pearlescent sections of the base as well as through the upper bowl, creates a particularly warm glow. The "Jacques Limousin"
