Description

Art Deco set by Fernand and Gaston Saddier consisting of two armchairs and a low table. The set is in good original condition, with slight wear due to age and use. This design firm was listed in 1919 under the name Saddier et fils. According to critics of the time, it "introduced modern art to the world" with its understated, classic furniture and occasional "forays" into geometric design, such as the set presented here. Fernand and Gaston Saddier worked with various outside collaborators, including the Adnet brothers and Edgard Brandt.
