Description

Large mantel mirror in wood carved with water leaves and a row of pearls, gilded with gold leaf, featuring a mercury mirror with glittering tin. Work from the late 18th century or early 19th century, in the Directoire style circa 1800. Our mirror is large in size, making it well-suited for use above a fireplace or on a dresser. Beautiful frame with rich moldings. Beautiful gold leaf gilding in good condition, cleaned by our gilder; spotless mercury mirror; original paneling on the back. The piece is in very good condition. Width: 145.5 cm Height: 107 cm
