Description

An elegant devotional oval from the late 17th century, finely carved from walnut wood, depicting Saint Margaret in high relief. The saint is depicted with her traditional iconographic attributes within a richly decorated oval frame featuring plant motifs, which retains interesting traces of the original lacquer finish. The work stands out for the quality of its carving, the delicate expressiveness of the face, and the balance of the composition--characteristics that make it a fine example of religious wood sculpture from the late 17th century. The object is in excellent overall condition, showing normal signs of aging fully consistent with its age.
