Description

An elegant and imposing sculpture depicting a seated greyhound, crafted from white crackled earthenware. The animal, depicted in a noble and attentive pose, rests on a cushion adorned with four pom-poms. Its slender silhouette, haughty bearing, and stylized forms reflect the enduring influence of Art Deco in Italian design of the 1950s. Standing 60 cm tall, this greyhound is a particularly attractive decorative piece whose presence will suit both a classic interior and a more contemporary decor. Italian work, circa 1950. In very good overall condition. There is slight wear on the tip of the muzzle. Dimensions: Height: 60 cm Base: 37 × 23 cm We deliver within France and ship worldwide.
