Description

A very beautiful painting by Nicolas HENRY de GRAY the Elder (1822-), signed "HENRY" and dated (18)59. It depicts a very beautiful woman with a gentle, serene gaze. She is dressed and styled in the characteristic fashion of the era, with curls and a ribbon in her hair. The artist has done a beautiful job capturing the radiance of her skin, her hand, her bracelet, and her romantic, wavy hair. The originality of this painting lies in its oval shape, as intended by the artist himself (the corners are unpainted!), covered with blue velvet, which lends an intimate character to this portrait. It features a beautiful period gilded frame. Restored to a lovely size: 60 x 50 cm.
