Description

This elegant English Victorian bookcase step stool combines sophistication, functionality, and fine woodworking. Crafted from mahogany and enhanced by superb veneers with rich grain patterns, it captivates with its curved lines characteristic of the Victorian style, which give it a harmonious and timeless silhouette. The first retractable step unfolds smoothly to provide convenient access to a storage compartment. The second step reveals an additional niche. The steps are upholstered in green leather framed by gold trim, adding an extra touch of elegance. Resting on sturdy turned legs, this step stool is a testament to remarkable craftsmanship and meticulous finishing. Both a utilitarian object and a piece of characterful furniture, it will naturally find its place in a library, an office, a living room,
