Description

This 19th-century Anjou-style cabinet, crafted from solid cherry wood, embodies a gentle elegance, drawing inspiration from the Louis XV style, whose soft curves and delicate lines it reflects. The cherry wood, with its luminous and delicately grained finish, offers a warm presence enhanced by the molded doors with their flowing lines. The chiseled, polished keyholes add a touch of luxury that complements the silhouette of this unique cabinet. Opening the doors reveals an interior designed for practicality: three sturdy shelves, mounted on adjustable rails, allow you to customize the space as needed while maintaining perfect stability. The result is a piece of furniture with timeless charm, where the tradition of Anjou meets the grace of the Louis XV style. An authentic piece, crafted from fine wood, that
