Description

The Giddy Girl - circa 1900 - Bronze cast with a brown patina. 5.2 kg. Some wear. A young woman is unbuttoning her bodice in a dance-like movement, her dress billowing around her body. Very fluid rendering of the drapery. Fix-Masseau, a sculptor associated with the Symbolist movement and the decorative arts of the late 19th century, began exhibiting at the Salon des Artistes Français in 1890. Siot stamp and a number. Signed "FIX-MASSEAU" on the base.
