Description

A carved wooden console table with a bipod base, in the Rocaille style, modeled after early Louis XV-period Parisian designs. With a dynamic silhouette, it rests on two strongly curved and scrolled legs that join at the bottom to form an asymmetrical cartouche featuring chicory leaves. The band, also with a flowing design, is openwork and centered on a cartouche adorned in the middle with a flower and leaves, while the sides feature a series of curves and counter-curves on either side. The top is painted in a green faux marble finish. A charming little piece of furniture that fits in anywhere. Height: 64.5 cm. Width at the top: 59 cm. Depth at the top: 33.5 cm
