Description

Hand-Painted Italian Majolica Amphora Vase, Arno Italy
Hand-painted Italian majolica amphora vase, marked "Arno Italy 1247" on the base. The vase features an elegant, classic amphora shape, with two large twisted handles, a flared neck, and a pedestal. The polychrome decoration is entirely hand-painted on a white glazed background, featuring landscape cartouches, stylized birds, floral scrolls, and Renaissance-inspired ornaments. The main cartouche depicts a mountain landscape with a small house, trees, and luminous pastel tones, framed by a yellow and ochre scrollwork border. The composition is enriched with floral motifs, decorative birds, and vibrant colors, including green, blue, yellow, purple, and brown. The "Arno Italy" mark and the number 1247 appear on the base, likely as a
