Description

A rare and elegant pair (from a set of two pairs; the other is for sale on this site) of floor-length curtains crafted from a beautiful, predominantly silk fabric featuring a subtle moiré effect and iridescent golden bronze highlights. Each panel measures 340 cm high by 120 cm wide, offering a striking presence and a superb drape. The fabric, which is both supple and heavy, beautifully captures the light and creates a refined ambiance suitable for both a classic interior and a home with character. Each pair bears the label of the renowned French manufacturer Toiles de Mayenne, a leader in the field of high-end furnishing textiles. This heritage guarantees meticulous craftsmanship and the use of quality materials designed for the most discerning interiors. The curtains are fully lined with
