Description

Napoleon III Side Table in Blackened Wood and Marble - 19th century Elegant circular side table from the Napoleon III period, crafted from blackened wood and featuring a central tabletop in veined marble in shades of brown, gray, and pink. The round top is framed by a prominent molded band of blackened wood, adorned with a delicate engraved design of foliage and stylized motifs. The openwork band features an elegant design of cut-out volutes, characteristic of decorative furniture from the second half of the 19th century. The piece rests on a turned central shaft, topped by a particularly ornate tripod base. The three legs, carved and sculpted with broad scrolls, give this small table a silhouette that is both light and highly decorative. The contrast between the blackened wood and the
