Description

Mechanical tabletop cigarette dispenser in the style of a kiosk or Parisian advertising column, attributed to the German manufacturer Gebrüder Schmidt KG, 1930s-1940s. Cylindrical metal body covered with period lithographed advertising labels, including illustrations by M. Ponty (such as Gitanes). The dispensing mechanism features a tombak dome at the top mounted on a sliding central rod; when lifted, the dome unfolds like a corolla to reveal the individual cigarette holders. Weighted circular base. Dimensions: 10 x 22 cm / 0.8 kg
