Description

An elegant and intricate sculptural group carved from Mediterranean coral, depicting the "Last Judgment." The composition, which extends vertically and features rich openwork, centers on the figure of Christ, surrounded by numerous finely carved human and angelic figures, arranged in a dynamic scene of great narrative intensity. Particularly noteworthy is the richness of the carving, evident in the faces, the drapery, and the intricate succession of figures, skillfully executed by making use of the coral's natural form. The work rests on its impressive original ebony-stained wooden base, which is quadrangular and molded, embellished with carved coral inlays featuring floral and ornamental motifs. On the back of the group is the engraved inscription "G. Ganeri - Giudizio
