

Small Kidney-shaped Mahogany Table, Transition Style - Early 20th Century

950 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Restauré par notre atelier

Material : Mahogany

Width : 52

Height : 74

Depth : 34

Description

This elegant, kidney-shaped table in the Transition style embodies all the refinement of Transition-style furniture as reinterpreted in the early 20th century. Topped with a sumptuous breccia marble slab featuring rich shades of purple and pink, it is accentuated by a delicate openwork brass rail that perfectly follows its sinuous lines. Around its base, this small mahogany piece features a central drawer adorned with a finely chiseled keyhole and a delicately crafted key. The sides are decorated with magnificent, perfectly executed scrollwork featuring Louis XVI knots and garlands of fruit. The piece rests on a slender base, whose fluted legs are embellished with decorative bronze spindles. The curved feet are also adorned with bronze finials. At mid-height, a kidney-shaped

Dealer

Antiquités Lecomte

Antiquaire Généraliste

Tel : 02.40.57.63.83

Mobile : 06.38.26.81.12

33 La Bosse des Landes

HERIC 44810

crossbar shelf gracefully ties the piece together, providing additional display space. It is highlighted by a brass mold. A small table full of charm and elegance, perfect for adding a warm and refined touch to your decor. Period:
Early 20th centuryExcellent condition following restoration in our cabinetmaking workshop.DimensionsWidth: 52 cmDepth: 34 cmHeight: 74 cmShipping available upon request in France and internationallyReference: 699V