Description

Antique Cross Pendant with Garnets -- 18K Yellow Gold
A piece of antique religious jewelry, set with garnets known as "Perpignan garnets". This antique semi-hinged cross pendant in 18K yellow gold dates from the late 19th-early 20th century and is also known as a flowered cross. It is set with garnets on a cord-weave setting, whose deep luster has stood the test of time without losing any of its intensity. A piece of pre-owned jewelry, selected for its excellent condition and its history. The story behind it? Back then, a cross like this wasn't worn simply for fashion. It was given as a gift for a baptism, a wedding, or as a sign of protection--and the garnet, the stone of fidelity and constancy, accompanied these silent commitments. Set in a pavé style using craftsmanship that is rare today,
