Description

Antique desk box, Art Deco period (or Mid-Century Art Deco style). This is a high-quality piece that combines fine materials with an elegant, geometric design. The box features two storage compartments separated by a fixed central divider. Structure: The base is made of dark-stained wood, giving it a pleasant weight and stability. Metal: The exterior is metal, most likely brass or brass-plated bronze, with a superb original patina. Decorations: Both lids are adorned with a geometric guilloché pattern (fine grid) embossed on the metal. Each lid is decorated with a rectangle of glossy black enamel, adding a sophisticated touch typical of the Art Deco period.
