Description

A Tuscan Renaissance chest made of walnut, dating from the late 19th century. A piece with a commanding presence, characterized by a solid structure and rich decorative carvings on the front featuring plant motifs and a central medallion. The hinged top conceals a spacious storage compartment, originally intended for linens or valuables. The molded base features carved animal-foot legs, typical of the Renaissance tradition. A warm, even patina that enhances the walnut grain. Ideal as a piece of furniture in entryways, living rooms, or at the foot of a bed. In good overall condition, with signs of aging consistent with its age.
