Description

This work was created by Claude Weisbuch; it is numbered 101/120, countersigned, and beautifully framed. Please note that the paper is stained in places. Claude Weisbuch (1927-2014) was a French painter, draftsman, and printmaker. He employed various techniques (lithography, drypoint, etc.) in his illustrations for rare books; he was also a painter and draftsman. His precise and dynamic line creates works full of movement and swirls, exploring themes he was particularly fond of: theater, opera, the equestrian world, musicians, card players, Kabuki dancers, as well as numerous portraits. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the artwork. For condition details, please examine the photos closely. Feel free to zoom in. The photos are an integral part of the description.
