

Virgin And Child, 18th Century

650 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Solid wood

Description

Virgin and Child carved from walnut wood, depicted standing on a polygonal base. The Virgin holds the Infant Jesus in her left arm. He holds a globe in his hand, a symbol of his sovereignty over the world. Mary is dressed in a long gown covered by a loose-fitting cloak with deep, angular folds, further evidence of the influence of late Gothic sculpture. An expressive sculpture of popular devotion, likely from a provincial French or Spanish workshop, dating from the late 17th or early 18th century. Beautiful antique brown patina that highlights the grain of the walnut. Condition: signs of use, cracks, wear, traces of old wood-boring insects, and restorations, particularly on the Virgin's right arm. The patina and finish were likely reworked at a later date. The piece remains structurally sound and
