Horse Dealer's Cane - Measuring Stick For Horses, Dual Scale (cm / Hands)

220 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Length : 90 cm

Description

A rare horse trader's measuring cane made of natural honey-colored rattan, featuring a retractable aluminum measuring rod graduated on both sides. One side displays metric markings in centimeters (cm), while the other shows markings in "HS"--corresponding to "hands," the traditional unit for measuring horse height--subdivided into inches. The rod is fitted with a horizontal brass crossbar featuring a built-in spirit level, allowing for precise positioning at the horse's withers. The measuring rod extends to approximately 1.80 meters. It features a honey-colored rattan shaft, a curved handle, and a metal ferrule. Closed height: approximately 90 cm. In good overall condition, showing signs of use and a lovely patina. A rare and highly distinctive item, representative of the professional equipment used by horse traders and
