Description

We present this elegant Italian mahogany desk, dating from the mid-19th century, during the Louis-Philippe period. Characterized by simple lines and a lack of excessive ornamentation, the legs feature refined turned details. The warm hue of the mahogany and its unique grain will add warmth to the atmosphere of any room. The front features six practical drawers above the tabletop and four drawers below, providing ample storage space for small desk items. Additionally, the drawer beneath the right side of the tabletop includes a lockable compartment, perfect for storing confidential items or documents. The desktop, upholstered in elegant black faux leather and accented with a decorative gold frame, is comfortable for working. If you need additional storage space, the desktop is extendable, and two
