Description

Elegant French console table in the Napoleon III style, dating from the second half of the 19th century, made of mahogany and mahogany veneer. It is topped by a beautiful rectangular tabletop in veined white marble, resting on a band that opens to reveal a lockable drawer at the front. The piece rests on four richly turned legs in a twisted baluster design, joined by a mahogany crossbar. The numerous turned elements lend this console table a particularly refined and decorative character. The magnificent grain of the mahogany, combined with the understated elegance of the white marble, creates an elegant contrast. Dimensions: H. 88.5 × W. 90.5 × D. 41.5 cm. An elegant piece full of character, ideal for an entryway, living room, or library.
