Description

Empire-style mahogany chest of drawers, 19th century Beautiful Empire-style chest of drawers, dating from the first half of the 19th century, made of mahogany and mahogany veneer. With a straight and elegant silhouette, it features three large drawers at the front. These are adorned with remarkable bronze handles decorated with lion's paws holding rings, a motif particularly characteristic of the Empire decorative style. The shield-shaped lock plates harmoniously complement the design. The chest rests at the front on beautiful, sculpted lion's paw feet--powerful and well-defined--while the rear feet are straight. It is topped by a thick, slightly overhanging black marble top, which lends the piece a commanding presence. Photographs of the drawers also allow one to appreciate the
