Description

A magnificent, highly decorative 18th-century chandelier featuring an elegant gilded bronze frame adorned with a profusion of faceted crystal elements. The chandelier is centered around a graceful central stem, with gilded bronze arms and delicate floral motifs. The structure is richly decorated with Bohemian crystals, poignards and decorative crystal elements that beautifully reflect and diffuse light. The central stem is adorned with several magnificent faceted decorative vases. The chandelier features six lights. Its combination of finely crafted gilded bronze, sparkling crystal, and graceful proportions is characteristic of the refined decorative arts of 18th-century France. A centerpiece of exceptional elegance, it fits equally well in a refined apartment, a classic interior, a contemporary home, or a sophisticated dining
