Description

Neoclassical sculpture in gilded wood depicting an eagle with outstretched wings, Italy, 18th century. A common motif in both sacred and secular art, the eagle--an ancient emblem of strength and power in the Roman Empire--may have been used during the Neoclassical period as a tribute to Napoleonic rule. A high-quality sculpture featuring distinct plumage and a beautiful original gold leaf finish. In good condition, with minor signs of age and wear on the gilding. Dimensions Wingspan: 45 cm Eagle height: 20 cm Height with pedestal: 30
