Description

Camille Hilaire (1916-2004) "Bathers" Oil on canvas Signed lower right Very good condition Dimensions 23 x 29 cm - framed 45 x 51 cm A Look at the Work ® This work, with its intimate dimensions, nevertheless exudes a surprisingly strong presence. It depicts two reclining female nudes in a stylized aquatic landscape, rendered with great formal freedom. The simplified bodies blend harmoniously with the blue and green bands of the background. The tight framing and diagonal lines reinforce the sense of intimacy and fluidity. The palette, dominated by cool blues, pearlescent whites, and a few touches of luminous yellow, creates a quiet, meditative atmosphere. Light is built through the juxtaposition of colored surfaces. Color takes precedence over descriptive detail. The free and spontaneous brushwork reveals a vivid and sensitive painterly texture. The work captivates with its balance between figuration and decorative simplification, as well as the gentleness it exudes. This small format further enhances the sense of intimacy and lends the painting the precious quality of a poetic scene captured in the moment.
