Description

An elegant set of four chairs dating from the 1950s, crafted from fine mahogany. The design stands out for its sinuous and refined lines, which add a touch of sophisticated elegance to any room. The cushioning consists of springs and foam, ensuring comfort and durability, while the fabric upholstery has been completely reupholstered, giving the chairs a fresh, contemporary look. These chairs have undergone a meticulous restoration process, which has preserved the wood's original beauty and renewed the upholstery, making them perfect for everyday use or special occasions.
