Description

A table from the 1950s-1960s with a stained beech wood base, featuring an elegant design typical of the mid-century period. The tabletop is made of walnut veneer, offering a warm and refined surface. The solid structure and the soft lines of the legs provide stability and an appealing aesthetic, making it an ideal piece of furniture for spaces that call for a touch of retro style. In good condition, this table retains the authentic charm of the era, perfect for enriching both residential and commercial spaces with a touch of design history. MOTATA0323943
