

Reliquary, 19th Century.

Description

19th-century reliquary in its original frame. This small reliquary is typical of that period. It features extensive gilding arranged in a perfectly symmetrical pattern of columns that frame the relics, which are adorned with romantic friezes. The center panel is original. A watercolor with a mysterious subject matter... a well, a bird, and a violet in the sky. The relics are reminiscent of southern France: St. Donatus, St. Vincent, and St. Lucy. In perfect condition with its original frame and glass (unopened).
