Description

A decorative gilded bronze piece, signed "J. Callot," in the shape of a fully blooming flower, featuring rich modeling and remarkable relief detail. DESCRIPTION: Gilded bronze trinket dish, bearing the signature "J. Callot," depicting a large flower with generously spread petals. The modeling of the petals, the delicately highlighted veins, and the intricately worked floral center give the piece remarkable depth and a strong sculptural presence. At the center of the flower appears a delicately modeled female figure, integrated into the heart of the composition. This feminine presence, surrounded by the petals and plant motifs in relief, reinforces the work's symbolic and refined character, typical of the Art Nouveau aesthetic. STYLE & PERIOD In the spirit of Art Nouveau, a movement that
