Description

A beautiful and substantial chest of drawers. Restored around 1820-1830, it features an elegant mahogany-veneered front with beautiful grain patterns, carefully arranged in a mirror pattern. It features five drawers, including a top drawer integrated into the apron beneath the top. The other four drawers are adorned with ring handles and gilded bronze keyholes. Traditionally crafted to a high standard, with oak drawer bottoms and solid partition panels between each drawer--a detail characteristic of particularly meticulous construction. The sides, equally elegant, feature beautiful framed mahogany panels. The piece rests on a straight base topped with small feet. The chest of drawers is topped with a beautiful dark gray marble slab veined with white, original and intact. A generously proportioned piece, simple
