Description

EMPIRE-PERIOD MIRROR - BEAUTIFUL GILDING - ORIGINAL MERCURY GLASS - 19TH CENTURY An elegant Empire-style mirror dating from the early 19th century, set in a beautiful rectangular frame of wood and gilded stucco. The frame is richly adorned with relief motifs characteristic of the Empire style, featuring floral friezes, palmettes, scrollwork, and ornaments elegantly arranged in the corners and at the center of the crossbars. The antique gilding, which is particularly decorative, has a beautiful patina and retains all the charm of a piece that has spanned more than two centuries. Above all, this mirror features its original mercury glass, a feature that is particularly sought after today. It displays the slight irregularities, nuances, and patina characteristic of antique mirrors, which
