Description

Rare pair of white marble statues veined with gray, depicting two female figures in the classical style, from the 19th century, with a HEIGHT of 123 CM. An elegant pair of white marble statues with gray veining, depicting two young women draped in the classical style, in graceful poses and slightly unveiled. The first figure, with her hair pulled up, adjusts her hairstyle with one hand while the other holds the folds of her drapery.The second, with long, wavy hair, holds her hands to her chest in a delicate and modest pose.Both sculptures feature meticulous rendering of the drapery, with numerous supple folds and effects of movement. The faces, hairstyles, and poses are in keeping with the neoclassical style inspired by ancient statuary.Each statue rests on a circular marble base. Together, they form a particularly
