Description

Oil on canvas painting "Still Life with Flowers, Fruit, and a Bird" - 17th Century An elegant Baroque-style still life depicting a rich and spectacular bouquet of colorful flowers arranged in a refined vase, accompanied by fruit and a small bird perched among the foliage. The composition stands out for its sumptuous and decorative character, achieved through a refined interplay of warm, brown, and golden hues. The flowers, rendered with lively, textured brushstrokes, emerge from the dark background, creating a striking effect of depth and lending the work a remarkable overall elegance. The compositional approach and color palette hark back to the Italian tradition of still-life painting from the 17th and 18th centuries, with particular attention to the collector's and decorative tastes
