Description

Pair of Art Deco table lamps, each featuring two curved lamp arms. The sculptural base, made of cast metal with a silver finish, features superb hammered texturing and the curved lines typical of the 1930s-1940s style. Stamped on the bases is the inscription "PARIS VAR" along with a V-shaped logo. They are topped with four modern conical lampshades made of heather-gray fabric, which add a contemporary touch and provide warm, soft lighting. In excellent condition and fully functional (recently rewired).
